CUTICURA IS THE ONE AND ONLY CURE

"In thankfulness and great appreeintion of your wonderful Cuticura Remedy I wish to inform all those who are troubled with a disease such as I had that Cuticura Contment is the one and only cure for bleeding, raw eczema. For six long months I suffered and consulted physician after physician to no avail. The sores were on both hands, and nothing seemed to help them. Finally I tried Cuticura Scap and Cuticura Ointment, and in just one week I was entirely well. Allowing this to be published so that others may benefit from my experience. "There was a dramatic scene when the Monomach went down. The Bado Maru, which survived the remarkable experience with Vladivostok squadron, in which the Hitachi Maru was sunk, came upon some of the crew of the Monomach and rescued them. Among them was an eagineer officer, who died, and the officers of the Sado Maru gave him a military funeral from the deck.

"Later, the Sado picked up the Monomach, and, getting a line to her, endeavored to tow her to Tsushima. The Monomach was leaking hadly, and the attempt to tow her was a failure.

"Suddenly, there was a great explosion aboard the Monomach, and she began to settle in the water. Seeing that she was going down, Captain Kamaya ordered them to settle in the water. Seeing that she was going down, Captain Kamaya ordered them of the Sado Maru to line the decks, and, calling the bugiers, directed them to sound taps. It was a pretty tribute to the ship which had been gallantly fought and to the men who gave up their lives in her."

General Manager Ramsey would not granf the request.

The navigation company's object in making such a request was to have additional time in which to take an appeal to the United States Court in the injunction suit, which was instituted by the railroad some davs ago in the Circuit Court at Springfield. Ili.

The suit originally resulted in the issuance of a temporary injunction against the Corwin H. Spencer and other boats landing at Piasa Chautauqua.

Captain Harry W. Hrolaski stated yes.

suance of a temporary injunction against the Corwin H. Spencer and other boats landing at Piasa Chautauqua.

Captain Harry W. Brolaski stated yesterday that the Spencer will continue to land at Chautauqua, the same as it has always been doing. He says he realized that he would be in contempt of court, but that it was the object to take the matter to a higher court anyway. The large traffic demands that the Spencer land at Chautauqua, he said.

"In addition to Captain Harry Brolaski, my son who is in command of the steamer." said Captain H. W. Brolaski yesterday, "I have three other licensed captains aboard her. In the event that the captain in command is arrested for contempt of court at Chautauqua when the Spencer lands, the presence of the additional captains will insure her safe and prompt return to St Louis."

Captain Henry W. Leyhe of the Eagle Packet Company, whose packet, the Spread Engle, was also enjoined from landing at Plasa Chautauqua, stated yeaterlay that he had not been served with the injunction writ.

"When we are served with it." he said we will stop landing at Chautauqua. Not before."

The Spencer did not go to Chautauqua yesterlay owing to the fact that she had a negro excursion down the river. She will make her first landing at Chautauqua to-day, and it is expected that there will he some work for the Deputy Sheriff, who is said to be iring in wall at Chautauqua to arrest the first steamboatman who lands there examinst the court's orders.

WORKING ON OLEO CASES.

Westhus Collects Evidence-Gray Not Prosecutor.

Internal Revenue Collector Ben Westhus is collecting evidence to be used in the prosecution of several alleged violations of the oleomargarine law. Two of the cases were heard before Commissioner Gray last week. Speaking of these and similar cases, Commissioner Gray and vesterday:

similar cases. Commissioner Gray and yesterday:

"I have been quoted, entirely without authority, as saying that I had compromised some of the cares with fines, but intended to see if prison sentences would not have a better effect on the offunders.

"I not only did not say anything of the kind, but could not do so if I wished. My duties are entirely those of an examining magistrate, acting under the direction of the court, and I have absolutely nothing to do with the prosecution. If I were prosecutor and magistrate also I would indeed be able to run things with a high hand."
